Dear Sir/Ma'am,

Warm Greetings from Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University (SRMU)!

We are pleased to announce that we are organizing a National Conference on Biotechnology Innovation: Interdisciplinary Approach to Agriculture, Food, Health, Environment and Sustainable Development (NatConBio-2019) and Annual General Body Meet of Society for Biotechnologists (India) from September 27-28th, 2019. This conference at Shri Ramswaroop Memorial University, Barabanki, Uttar Pradesh aims to bring together researchers from diverse fields of Biotechnology and Interdisciplinary Branches to present and discuss broadly covering the thematic areas of human, food, plant, animal and environmental health.

We take this opportunity to invite you and your team to present your research and participate in this conference. The conference encompasses lectures from renowned researchers, poster and oral presentations. We request you to circulate this message among your friends, colleagues, lab members and students to encourage the participation.
